

Ruyschaert

Language Academy

Are you passionate about teaching languages and an English, French or Dutch teacher?

Then a language course at Ruyschaert would be just perfect for you! We are continuously looking for new teachers to join our language courses during the Easter and summer holidays, as well as our online courses during the autumn and spring vacations.

"During your studies you learn how to become a teacher. Through working at Ruyschaert, you learn how to become a professional. And returning every year is something you do with passion and joy."

W. Braet

"As a new teacher, I learned an enormous amount at Ruyschaert. With the help of the coordinators and other colleagues, I gained a lot of experience and discovered the way I personally prefer to teach!" L. Claeys

"During a week at Ruyschaert, you see your students progressing every day, which makes it incredibly rewarding. Moreover, the tailored approach, environment and amazing group atmosphere ensure I come back every year." R. Willems

Come join us for a fantastic week!

What does Ruyschaert expect from you?

- To give dynamic classes with enthusiasm and passion
- To have the didactic skills so you can adapt your lesson plan to the needs of the pupils
- To use a differentiated approach in class and to be attentive to every individual
- You can identify yourself in our 6 pillars

What can Ruyschaert offer you?

- You will teach a small class of motivated pupils (12-18 years old) for one whole week
- You are part of a dynamic team of enthusiastic teachers
- Every campus has a didactic coach who will guide and support you
- Accommodation in exceptionally well-equipped campuses (included), and healthy, varied meals
- You can choose which campus and which week(s) you would like to teach

Does this sounds like something for you?
