

Interesting websites for elementary level

General websites (all levels)

Looking for a good dictionary? On this website, you can translate the words in French or Dutch, but you can also start your own dictionary! Click on the star next to the word to add it to your own dictionary.

Want to test your knowledge? Go to your dictionary and start your personalized test. Good luck!

> <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/>

Vocabulary

The Experiment is a series of short videos that improve your English expressions. When you finished watching the video, you can test yourself with a small quiz. With a maximum of 5 minutes per activity, you can learn a lot in a small amount of time.

> <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/course/experiment>

Learn vocabulary by choosing the topic that you like best. For example, farm animals. You can choose between a dozen different exercises on the vocabulary you want to learn. A quiz, a memory game, a video, this website will provide you with all the exercises you need.

> <http://www.englishmedialab.com/vocabulary.html>

Do you sometimes mix Dutch with English? Here are some false friends you really need to learn! False friends are two words that sound the same but mean something completely different. Ready to practice?

> <https://www.heardutchhere.net/FalseFriends.html>

Bouton or button? They may sound the same but mean something completely different in both languages. This is just one of the 20 most important false friends there are between French and English. Want to learn some more?

> <https://www.fluentu.com/blog/french/faux-amis-french-false-friends-cognates/>

Learn vocabulary with one of the best websites around!

Click on a topic that you like, download the exercises or play a little memory game, crossword ...

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/vocabulary/beginner-vocabulary>

Is it a rubber or an eraser? A biscuit or a cookie?

Let's find out the difference between American and British English

> <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e33vwOw8jI0&list=PLMR3IYBlrUziQKBJrw8aODYRtpxJpJkKT>

Grammar

Learn grammar by choosing the topic that you like best. For example, the articles.

You can choose between a dozen different exercises on the grammar that you have chosen. A quiz, a memory game, a video, this website will provide you with all the exercises you need.

> <http://www.englishmedialab.com/grammar.html>

You don't understand the present perfect? You struggle with adverbs of frequency?

No problem! This website will give you a great explanation and exercises. Done? Great! Let's try the grammar games then.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/grammar/beginner-grammar>

You don't understand the present continuous even though your teacher has explained it a thousand times? Find it on this website and read through the formation/structure.

> https://www.myenglishpages.com/site\_php\_files/grammar.php

Having trouble with grammar? Click on one of the videos or playlists and learn some new grammar.

> https://www.youtube.com/user/Eidioms/playlists?sort=dd&view=1&shelf\_id=0

Reading

Have you always wanted to read the newspaper in English? Here is your chance.

Do you think that the article is too difficult for you? Use <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/> to understand everything you ever wanted to know about the topic you chose.

> <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround>

No time to read an entire book? No problem! Here are some short stories that you might enjoy!

Click on 'elementary' and find a text that you like. You can even check yourself with a small exercise on the text.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/study-break/graded-reading>

Click on a text and start reading until you really understand everything. Think you are ready?

Fill out the test or multiple choice.

> <http://www.esl-lounge.com/student/reading-elementary.php>

Writing

Find a topic in the general selection that you would like to write about and click on an exercise.

Do you want to work on a different topic, holidays for example, simply click on 'H' for holiday or try to find the topic in the list on top.

> <https://www.enchantedlearning.com/essay/>

Take your pen and write about .... Click on A1 or A2 and find a topic that you would like to write about.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/skills/writing>

Scroll down and find a topic that you like. Start or finish the story any way you like.

> <http://www.englishforeveryone.org/Topics/Writing-Practice.htm>

Listening

Click on a video of Shakespeare and take a look at the video. You will learn new expressions while training your listening skills. At the end of the video, scroll down and do the test. Have you understood everything Shakespeare said?

> <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/course/shakespeare>

Scroll down a little and pick a topic of the 'easy' level.
Listen to the record while you complete the multiple choice.

> <https://www.esl-lab.com/>

Do you have trouble understanding everything your teacher says in class? Improve your listening comprehension with this website. Click on a topic that you like and complete the exercises.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/study-break/graded-listening>

Speaking

Listen to Tim and repeat what he says. Improve your pronunciation with these easy workshops.
During each workshop, you will focus on 1 or 2 different sounds.
Are you ready to sound like a native speaker?

> <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/oromo/features/pronunciation>

Let's talk about ... Choose A1 or A2 and find a topic that you would like to talk about.
Take a look at the video and do the exercises.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/skills/speaking>