

Interesting websites for intermediate level

General websites (all levels)

Looking for a good dictionary? On this website, you can translate the words in French or Dutch, but you can also start your own dictionary! Click on the star next to the word to add it to your own dictionary.

Want to test your knowledge? Go to your dictionary and start your personalized test. Good luck!

> <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/>

Vocabulary

Learn vocabulary with one of the best websites around! Click on a topic that you like, download the exercises or play a little memory game, crossword ...

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/vocabulary/advanced%20vocabulary>

Do you sometimes mix Dutch with English? Here are some false friends you really need to learn! False friends are two words that sound the same but mean something completely different. Ready to practice?

> <https://www.heardutchhere.net/FalseFriends.html>

Nothing is more awkward than using a word with a very different meaning in a sentence. Saying that your bra hurts may not be the best idea. Want to learn some more false friends between English and French to avoid awkward conversations?

> https://www.myenglishpages.com/site_php_files/vocabulary-lesson-faux-amis.php

Click on a subject from the 'thematic vocabulary' list and try to make your own sentences using these words/collocations.

> https://www.myenglishpages.com/site_php_files/vocabulary.php

Grammar

Want to learn some new grammar? Click on a topic and download the audio for the explanation or take a look at the explanation of the grammar on the website. At the bottom, you can download worksheets and a summary of the grammar that you have just learned.

> http://www.bbc.co.uk/worldservice/learningenglish/grammar/grammar_challenge/

You don't know when to use a modal verb? What about passives? This website will give you all the explanation you need and exercises. Done? Great! Let's try the grammar games.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/grammar/intermediate-grammar>

Click on English grammar and look at the videos. Did you understand everything?

> <https://www.youtube.com/user/oxfordonlineenglish/playlists?view=1&flow=grid>

Click on a topic that you want to learn and read through the article and do the exercises.

> <https://www.thoughtco.com/esl-grammar-4133089>

You don't understand the past perfect continuous even though your teacher has explained it a thousand times? Find it on this website and read through the formation/structure.

> https://www.myenglishpages.com/site_php_files/grammar.php

Reading

Every day you can find new articles about what is going on in Flanders. Politics, economics, sports or education? You can find everything on Flanders today.

> <http://www.flanderstoday.eu/>

New articles and videos about what has been going on in Belgium.

> <https://www.vrt.be/vrtnws/en/>

Do you want to read your newspaper in English instead of French? Great, this website will give you all the news about France IN English!

> <https://www.france24.com/en/france/>

No time to read an entire book? No problem! Here are some short stories that you might enjoy!
Click on 'intermediate' or 'upper intermediate' and find a text that you like. You can even check yourself with a small exercise on the text.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/study-break/graded-reading>

Writing

Find a topic in the general selection that you would like to write about and click on an exercise.
Do you want to work on a different topic, holidays for example, simply click on 'H' for holiday or try to find the topic in the list on top.

> <https://www.enchantedlearning.com/essay/>

Take your pen and write about Click on B2 and find a topic that you would like to write about.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/skills/writing>

Scroll down to "English writing exercises – listed alphabetically" and click on the writing exercise that appeals to you most.

> <https://www.esolcourses.com/content/topicsmenu/writing.html>

Listening

No time to read but you still want to know what is happening in France?
Click on the short videos and stay up to date.

> <https://www.france24.com/en/france/>

Scroll down a little and pick a topic of the 'medium' or 'difficult' level.
Listen to the record while you complete the multiple choice.

> <https://www.esl-lab.com/>

Do you have trouble understanding everything your teacher says in class? Improve your listening comprehension with this website. Go to 'intermediate' and click on a topic that you like. On the bottom you can download the exercises and the answer key.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/study-break/graded-listening>

Speaking

Listen to Tim and repeat what he says. Improve your pronunciation with these easy workshops. During each workshop, you will focus on 1 or 2 different sounds. Are you ready to sound like a native speaker?

> <http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/oromo/features/pronunciation>

Let's talk about ... Choose B2 and find a topic that you would like to talk about. Take a look at the video and do the exercises.

> <http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/skills/speaking>

Click on spoken English or English pronunciation to train your speaking abilities.

> <https://www.youtube.com/user/oxfordonlineenglish/playlists?view=1&flow=grid>